

Thesis Title	The Characteristic Development of the Assistant Directors of Petchabun Technical College
The Researcher	Mr. Manoon Yaibuatese
Thesis Advisors	Dr. Kata Cheinta and Dr. Rungsang Aronpirote
Year	2001

Abstract

"This study , the experiment for development research, was :

1) to determine the opinions of the teachers and the officials of Petchabun Technical College concerning the existing characteristics of the assistant directors of the four sections; the academic, the educational supporting, the student affair and the planning & developing sections; before the Training of the Characteristic Development.

2) to determine the opinions of the teachers and the officials of Petchabun Technical College concerning the existing characteristics of the assistant directors of the four sections after the Training of the Characteristic Development.

3) to compare the opinions of the teachers and the officials of Petchabun Technical College concerning the existing characteristics of the assistant directors of the four sections before and after the Training of the Characteristic Development.

The subjects in this experiment were the assistant directors of the four sections of Petchabun Technical College; the academic, the educational supporting, the student affair and the planning & developing sections. The instruments used in this experiment were :

1) the questionnaire on the investigation of the officials' opinion concerns the characteristics of the four-assistant directors 2) the developing program , investigates the six aspects of the assistant directors based on the principle of active learning, consists of 1. the physical fitness, 2. the emotional and affective , 3. the socializing and human